Year 2 The Last Wolf

We are so proud of everyone in Year 2 who worked together to write a wonderful class poem around the book that they are reading at the moment. Year 2 also performed their poem in assembly.

Into the woods to catch a wolf.
I can't be late my mother said.
Into the woods along the path.
There's tiny, muddy footprints
Into the woods to capture a wolf.
The screeching howls scare me.
Into the woods to grab the wolf.
The spiky, long nettles sting me.
Into the woods to stop a wolf.
The yucky flies are choking me.
Into the woods to Grandma's house.
The smell of smoke is breaking my lungs.
Into the woods to catch the wolf.
The sounds of a branch breaking.
I'm not alone anymore...
